

AFRICANA STUDIES

Presents

Dr. Michael W. G. Gaffley
Special Project Manager & Program Professor
Fischler School of Education & Human Services
Nova Southeastern University

“Is There A FLATLINE TO CHANGE?”

Identity, Reality, Conflict, Engagement in South Africa

Monday, October 25, 2010

6:30 P.M.

Learning Center – Room 190

Dr. Michael Gaffley, Certified Child and Youth Care Practitioner (CYC-P) is a program professor and graduate of Nova Southeastern University's Fischler School of Education and Human Services. As a CYC-P, he worked with sexually, physically and emotionally abused children and youth, and socially excluded families in high risk environments. As a former executive director of state and human services agencies in South Africa for nearly twenty years, he has been a driving force in many collaborative community based partnerships. Originally from South Africa, Dr. Gaffley is the recipient of numerous meritorious and academic awards, including Outstanding Student Achievement Award from NSU, Mayoral and Chairman's commendations and the Provincial Government's commendation for leadership. Dr. Gaffley brings the quintessential pinnacle perspective; he educates, informs and agitates.

