

NAACP Centenary Celebration

More than a 'National' Organization:

Examining the International Dimensions of the NAACP

Dr. Eric Duke

Department of Africana Studies

University of South Florida

December 3, 2009 @ 6:30 p.m.

Venue: College of Arts & Sciences (Wesley Center)

This talk explores the international dimensions of the NAACP's 100-year existence. It will examine the relationships between the international and US black freedom struggles and highlight a few prominent case studies of NAACP activism in the international arena.

Co-sponsored by Office of Academic Enhancement, Senior Vice Provost and Dean of Undergraduate Education , Graduate School, College of Arts & Sciences, School of Education, Multicultural Student Affairs, WWMA, United Black Students, Africana Studies , Center for Latin American Studies, Women's and Gender Studies , African Students Union, UM NAACP Centenary Celebration Committee

This is the second event in a series of the 2009 celebration of the NAACP