

The Center for Latin American Studies

Distinguished Speaker Series

Presents

Nicario Jiménez

The Artist of the Andes in “El Norte”: Visions of Immigration

Nicario Jiménez is a renowned Latin American folk artist known for his evocative retablos depicting the life, customs and struggles of Peru's rural and urban poor. This talk and exhibit will focus on the plight of immigrant experiences in the United States, as well as major triumphs in the field of Civil Rights.

Thursday, February 5, 2009

Wesley Gallery

7:00PM

Refreshments will be provided

OrganicArte.TM

CENTER FOR LATIN AMERICAN STUDIES AT THE UNIVERSITY OF MIAMI

Please feel free to contact us at umclas@miami.edu