Invite you to join us for the opening of

The Auschwitz Album Exhibition

The Auschwitz Album is a unique collection of photos taken by German SS officers. The photos represent one day in the systematic murder of the Jewish people during the Holocaust. The Auschwitz Album Exhibition was created by Yad Vashem and was originally displayed at the U.N. headquarters in New York in January 2005, commemorating 60 years of the liberation of Auschwitz.

Followed by a lecture on

“The Significance of Auschwitz in the Holocaust”

by

Dr. Michael Berenbaum

Opening Remarks by

Mr. Eli Zborowski

Chairman of the American Society for Yad Vashem

Special thanks to

Irma and Norman Braman for their generous support.
