

PHILOSOPHY COLLOQUIUM

Graham Priest

University of Melbourne

“Against Non-Being”

Thursday, April 12, 2007

Paper: 3:30 P.M.; Memorial Building 115

Refreshments: 5:30 P.M.; Ashe Building, Room 735

Graham Priest is the Boyce Gibson Professor of Philosophy at the University of Melbourne, and Professorial Fellow at the University of St Andrews. His research interests are in logic, philosophical logic, metaphysics, and history of philosophy. He is the author of a number of books including: In Contradiction (2nd edition, Oxford University Press, 2006), Beyond the Limits of Thought (2nd edition, Oxford University Press, 2002), Towards Non-Being (Oxford University Press, 2005), Doubt Truth to be a Liar (Oxford University Press, 2006), and An Introduction to Non-Classical Logic (Cambridge University Press, 2001).

Refreshments served following the discussion.

Later this month:

Philosophy Colloquium

April 26, 2007

Bernhard Nickel

(Harvard University)

Conference in Honor of Ramon Lemos

April 27, 2007

Noah Lemos

College of William & Mary

John Lemos

Coe College

UNIVERSITY OF Miami

COLLEGE OF ARTS AND SCIENCES

For more information visit us on the web:

<http://www.miami.edu/phi>

