The University of Miami
Africana Studies Program,
The Department of Art & Art History
&
Curator, Edmund Abaka

present

LEGACIES: SOCIAL JUSTICE
(Past and Present)

Opening Reception
Feb 15, 2014 7:00pm

CAS GALLERY
1210 Stanford Drive, University of Miami
Coral Gables, FL 33124

RSVP by 2.14.2014

786.473.3804
305.302.9192
The University of Miami’s Africana Studies Program and the Department of Art & Art History present Legacies: Social Justice (Past and Present), an art exhibition in celebration of Black History Month. Social Justice is the belief that each person deserves equal rights and opportunities - legally, economically, politically and socially. This month-long celebration highlights the many legacies and the impact that the peoples of African descent have had on the Americas and the World.

FEATURETING

Ansel Butler:
is a mixed-medium artist based out of Atlanta, Georgia

Julia Yarbough:
A multiple Emmy Award-winning broadcast and print journalist

Guy C. Syllien:
is a Haitian-born multimedia artist

SCHEDULE OF EVENTS

Feb 11 | 7:30pm
“Natural Is Cool Enough (Hair)” Photography Exhibit and Poetry Slam
CAS Gallery, UM Campus

Feb 12 | 7:00pm
“Reflections on an Africa Journey” with Julia Yarbough
Shoma Hall, School of Communication, UM Campus

Feb 13 | 5:30pm
“Rasta-I-ization” Documentary with Jamaica-based documentary Filmmaker, David DaCosta
Perez Architecture Building, UM Campus

Feb 15 | 7:00pm
Black History Month Art Exhibition Opening Reception
“Legacies: Social Justice (Past and Present)” with Ansel Butler, Guy Syllien and Julia Yarbough
CAS Gallery, UM Campus

Feb 19 | 5:00pm
Africana International Coffee Hour
CAS Gallery, UM Campus