The University of Miami/Jean Monnet Chair cordially invites you to a roundtable presentation, in the context of the terrorist attacks in Paris:

“The European Union member states in the Council of Europe and the United Nations”

by

Ambler H. Moss, Jr.
Professor of International Studies

and

Alberto D’Alessandro
Council of Europe and European Movement

When: Tuesday, December 1, 2015, 9.30am
Where: Dooley Memorial 102, University of Miami. Coral Gables

Ambler H. Moss, Jr. (B.A., Yale University; J.D., the George Washington University) is Professor of International Studies at the University of Miami. He was founding Dean of the Graduate School of International Studies at the University of Miami and Director of the Dante B. Fascell North-South Center. He served as Ambassador to Panama from 1978 until 1982. In the career Foreign Service he served in Barcelona, Spain, at the U.S. Delegation to the Organization of American States, and as Spanish Desk Officer in the Department of State.

Alberto D’Alessandro holds degrees in Political Science from the Institute of Political Science of Grenoble, France. He is Director of the Office of the Council of Europe in Venize (Italy) and served in the European Parliament in Brussels, and at the Council of Europe in Strasbourg. He is a member of the Group of Experts of the Italian Presidency and a member of the Italian Council of the European Movement, founded by Altiero Spinelli.

For information:

Joaquín Roy.
305-284-3266; jroy@miami.edu