The Miami-Florida European Union Center of Excellence, a partnership with Florida International University, and the Jean Monnet Chair of the University of Miami, cordially invite you to a guest talk and discussion:

The European Economic and Monetary Union: What is the euro and the eurozone?

by

María Lorca
Lecturer, Department of Economics, University of Miami

Presentation: Joaquín Roy, Director, EU Center

When: Monday, October 21, 4.30-6pm
Where: Ferre 126, University of Miami. Coral Gables

Maria Lorca-Susino (Ph.D.) is Lecturer of Economics and International Studies at the University of Miami, where she is also the Undergraduate Economics Advisor. Since 2005, she has been Associate Director, Editor, and Post Doctoral Fellow at the European Union Center of Excellence. Her research can be found at www.miami.edu/eucenter (papers) and http://marialorcasusino.com/ Her recent papers are: The European Union and the Eurozone: The Danger that Lay Ahead; The US Economy and the Great Recession; Man is the only animal that trips twice Over the same stone. She is also the author of The euro in the Twentieth First Century (Ashgate)

This is activity of the Atlantic Initiative, a program of research, publications and outreach on the triangular relations between the European Union, the United States and Latin America, in the context of the planned Trade and Investment Partnership between the US and the EU

For information:

Joaquin Roy, Director
305-284-3266; jroy@miami.edu