World renowned photojournalist, documentarian, and Presidential Fellow, Susan Meiselas, will be screening her film “Pictures from a Revolution” based on the Nicaraguan Revolution. The film will be followed by a discussion with Dr. William Rothman. The screening will take place Thursday February 9th at 7pm in the Shoma Hall, Room 3053 at the Communication School.

The Portuguese department is hosting Bate-Papo talks for students to practice their Portuguese with fluent speakers. The department is also hosting a film series beginning with “O Beijo da Mulher Aranha” on Feb, 15, at 6pm in Merrick room 205. The film is a story of two men becoming unlikely friends after being disappeared by the Brazilian government during the dictatorship.

Gender & Social Development Symposium
“Gender Equality 15 Years Post-Left Turn” will feature prominent speakers who will speak on the achievements and challenges of gender equality in Latin America 15 years after the “Left Turn.” The symposium is hosted by MIA and will be held Thursday March 2 from 10am-4pm. A flyer will be sent out soon and contact Merike Blofield at m.blofield@miami.edu if you have any questions.

The Annual Graduate Conference of the Modern Language Department is hosting “Transnational Bodies in Contemporary Cultures” on Feb. 17 at the Wesley Gallery. Keynote speaker will be Dr. Jasbir Puar.

Call For Papers
The annual Tri-University Grad Student Conference, “New Directions in the Study of the Caribbean and Latin America” will be hosted at FAU on April 7. They seek original research on any topic involving Latin America. The proposal abstract needs to be 500 words or less. Send to TRICLAS@yahoo.com no later than March 3, 2017

Women’s March: What Now?
If you’re interested in what you can do to get civically and politically involved in these unprecedented times after the women’s march then stop by Suites 102 and 107 of the Nursing School on Friday Feb 10, 3-5. There will be a panel of speakers for you to ask questions, share ideas, and learn how to be effective in making your voice heard. Food and snacks will be served. Any questions email m.blofield@miami.edu

MIA is hosting speaker Dr. Amelia Hintzen on her presentation “A Sugarcane Immigration Status: The History of Stateless-ness in the D.R.” on Feb 20 at 12-1:30 pm. The presentation will focus on how the D.R. government has taken away Haitian-Dominicans’ citizenship, leaving them stateless. RSVP at Everbrite.com.