DISTINGUISHED FELLOWS SERIES

GRADUATE SYMPOSIUM AND FIELD RESEARCH GRANT WORKSHOP

The University of Miami Institute for Advanced Study of the Americas invites you to the first graduate symposium and field research grant workshop.

Welcoming remarks by Dr. Felicia Marie Knaul, Director

LUNCH PROVIDED

JANUARY 27, 2017

10:00 AM - 1:45 PM

RSVP HERE

ALBERT PICK HALL
1541 BRESCIA AVE. SUITE 110 CORK GABLES, FL 33146

Presented by UMIA and the 2016-17 Distinguished Fellows: Caitlin Brown, Matthew Davidson and Yulia Vorobyeva

www.as.miami.edu/MIA

Follow us @univmiamiMIA
GRADUATE SYMPOSIUM AND FIELD RESEARCH GRANT WORKSHOP

The University of Miami Institute for Advanced Study of the Americas proudly presents winners of the 2016 Tinker Foundation and UMIAs Field Grants. The workshop provides hands-on advice from faculty about how to apply for grants and turn field research into important publications. Details on the 2017 Summer Grants Competition will also be provided.

Creating Identities & Marking Difference:
Culture, Politics, and History
10:00 am - 11:00 am

- Samina Ali (English): “Transgressive Islamic “Brownness”: Disruptive Racial and Cultural Formations Within Feminist Muslim Latina and South Asian Communities.”

Lizard Color Palettes and Marine Management
11:15 am - 12:10 pm

- Alexandra Puritz (RSMAS): “Performance Measures for Evaluating Management Effectiveness of Marine Protected Areas in Cuba’s Southern Archipelagos: A Comparative Analysis Between Punta Francés and Gardens of the Queen National Parks”
- Winter Beckles (Biology): “Signal adaptation and species divergence in the Hispaniolan bark anole, Anolis distichus.”

Adolescent Reproductive Health
12:10 pm - 12:35 pm

- Kerli Kirch (School of Communication): “Toward a Cultural Taxonomy on Adolescent Pregnancy in Jamaica.”
- Soraya McFarlane (School of Communication): “The Effectiveness of Jamaican Adolescent Pregnancy Videos.”

Grant Writing Workshop & the 2017 UMIAs Student Competition
12:35 pm - 1:45 pm
Lunch is Served

- Sallie Hughes, UMIAs and Department of Journalism and Media Management
- Eduardo Elena, Department of History
- Justin Stoler, Department of Geography and Regional Studies