GENDER AND ILLEGALITY IN THE LIVES OF UNDOCUMENTED YOUNG ADULTS

Dr. Elizabeth Aranda
Assistant Dean for Global Engagement, College of Arts and Sciences,
Professor of Sociology, University of South Florida

The scholarly literature has documented the ways in which an undocumented legal status shapes young adults’ trajectories into adulthood, however, gender remains under-explored in this literature. This presentation will illustrate the ways in which gender and illegality interact to shape the lived experiences of undocumented young adults, particularly during their transition to adulthood.
