The Caribbean Literary and Cultural Studies Program at the University of Miami presents

Publishing in Caribbean Studies
A Workshop with Cathie Brettschneider
Humanities Editor at the University of Virginia Press

Friday, October 12, 2012. From 10:30 a.m. to 12:00 p.m.
Newman Alumni Center
6200 San Amaro Drive
Coral Gables, FL 33146

Cathie Brettschneider’s career in scholarly publishing spans more than thirty years, the last twenty of which have been as the Humanities Editor at the University of Virginia Press.

Through her work with the New World Studies series, the University of Virginia Press continues to be instrumental in fostering innovative, critical work in Caribbean studies and in providing a platform for established and new academic voices.

Price: $40 ($25 for grad students).
Limit: 30 (10 seats will be reserved for UM faculty and grad students, and 5 seats will be reserved for FAU faculty and grad students—both at no cost).

For more information about the workshop and other events of The 31st Annual West Indian Literature Conference, please visit http://www.as.miami.edu/WIndianLitConf

Sponsored by the University of Miami Center for the Humanities, the College of Arts & Sciences, and the Department of English