

Have You Considered a Career in Public and Nonprofit Service?

Public and nonprofit service offers outstanding opportunities to start or further your career!

Public and nonprofit organizations are looking for motivated people to lead and strengthen their communities and agencies. Public service strongly enhances specializations in political science, law, engineering, counseling, business, criminal justice, or health science!

Benefits of Public and Nonprofit Service:

- Use your skills to strengthen communities, agencies and the country
- Become part of local, state or national public policy networks
- Lead or manage public and nonprofit agencies
- Many opportunities for social entrepreneurship
- Competitive compensation packages!

Make a Difference!

Prospective Employers:

- Local, state and federal government
- Many nonprofit organizations!
- Trade and membership associations
- Political parties and advocacy groups
- International, Non-Governmental Organizations
- Consulting Firms

What Jobs Are Available?

- Program administrator
- Policy analyst
- County or city administrator
- Director of development
- Government relations specialist
- Legislative specialist
- Public health director
- Executive director
- Community liaison
- Emergency manager
- Human resource director
- Technology planner
- Program evaluator
- Urban planner

Convenient Classes!

The University of Miami Can Prepare You for a Career in Public & Nonprofit Service!

UM Public Administration Program:

- Graduate program (MPA) member, National Association of Schools of Public Affairs and Administration
- Convenient classes. Most courses offered in evenings
- Five year bachelor's, master's options
- Super-modern facilities on attractive Coral Gable campus
- Wide selection of courses in public and nonprofit service. Interesting electives, too!
- Graduates highly competitive in local, state and national job markets
- Award-winning, student-oriented faculty!
- MPA, MPH option combining training in public administration and public health
- Curriculum designed to develop management and policy skills, technical competencies, and public service values
- Course offerings combine a domestic and international perspective
- Small classes
- Good record placing graduates

Want to know more? Visit us at:

<http://www.as.miami.edu/mpa>

Or want to talk? Contact us at:

Department of Political Science
Public Administration Program

University of Miami

P.O. Box 248047

Coral Gables, FL, 33124

Phone: 305-284-2401; Fax: 305-284-2500

E-mail: jwest@miami.edu

For university information, visit: <http://www.miami.edu>

