- 1 Very interesting course, would recommend to a friend.
- 2 The course content was insightful and interesting, as well as practical. The class was able to gain an in-depth view of campaigns.
- 3 n/a
- 4 long take home exams, they should be assigned as projects. Final project is too long and confusing
I really liked the course content and would not change much about it. Towards the end of the course the amount of reading increased a lot and I did not think that it was very relevant. It was good to have actual PowerPoint presentations each class and I feel that I really learnt a lot in the class.
- 5 I thought it was very interesting, and I learned a lot.
I think it would've been more effective to focus the exams on one aspect of campaigns in detail, and have more exams, rather than a couple of exams covering multiple aspects of a campaign. I feel I could have learned more if the exams had been structured differently.
- 6 great class!

- This was by far my favourite course of the semester and I really looked forward to classes. One comment I would make however was that the Final Project was a great deal of work that needed a little more guidance. The second midterm was too near the end of the semester and more time should have been put aside for working on the project including class time.

 - 3 Great class! I really enjoyed it, thank you!
 - 4 Excellent class, would recommend it to anyone.
