

PRESENTS:

Competition for the 2009 Award for Best Student Paper on Miami

Undergrad:
$300 Prize!

Graduate:
$500 Prize!

deadline: Friday, May 1, 2009

fine print:

These generous awards are sponsored by UM's Urban Studies Program and are given to one undergrad and one graduate student (in separate competitions) who write the most compelling paper on a topic related to the Greater Miami area. The contest is intended to encourage fresh thinking about the challenges and opportunities of living in South Florida. Papers are judged by the Program's Advisory Board. ELIGIBILITY: All full-time undergraduate and graduate students at UM. Contest papers must be single-authored and may be based on a regular course paper, honors, Master's or PhD thesis. GUIDELINES: Papers may not exceed a total of 25 pages (double spaced). Cover-sheet of the paper must contain title, author's name, student number, major field of study, year of study, and email address. Submit papers before 5 pm on May 1, 2009 as an email attachment in a single PDF file to nijman@miami.edu (submissions that are late or that do not meet format requirements will not be accepted); NOTIFICATION: Winners will be notified by mid-May and announced on our web site. MORE INFO: www.as.miami.edu/urb or contact Prof. Jan Nijman, Director, Urban Studies Program: nijman@miami.edu.
