

Application for Writing Course (WRIT) Designation

Fill in the grey areas of the form below, save it as a PDF, and submit the PDF to the College Curriculum Committee by attaching it to the CIM submission). Please also attach a current syllabus to the CIM submission.

Course Catalog Number (e.g., ENG369): CODE

Course Title: Course title goes here

Is this a currently existing or a new course?

Current

New

1. Syllabi for writing courses must contain at least one Student Learning Outcome explicitly pertaining to writing. Please use the area below to list relevant SLOs.

2. Syllabi for writing courses should describe writing assignments used to fulfill the writing SLO. Please use the area below to list these writing assignments.

3. In 2011, the College faculty approved a description of writing courses that included the following statement about the use of revision in teaching writing: “courses must include faculty, and possibly peer, critique of student writing leading to revision and re-submission for faculty evaluation.” Please describe the critique, revision, and resubmission process for the writing assignments.

Signature of Chair